September 2007

Dear Parents and Guardians,

On behalf of the entire Bloomsbury School family, I am proud to present you with our 2007-2008 student handbook. We are certain that you will find the information has been included in an effort to keep you well informed as to the important aspects of your child's school day.

Here at Bloomsbury Elementary School, we will continue to provide a student-focused learning environment with challenging and rewarding educational experiences for all students. Throughout the course of the school year, your child will be actively involved in a variety of learning activities designed to meet individual needs and interests. However, our work here is impossible without your continued support. We recognize how important your child's education is and guarantee to provide opportunities for your child to succeed. In order to maintain a positive home-school connection, your participation in your child's education is essential. We strongly urge you to join our Parent/Teacher Organization, participate in school functions, and volunteer in the building. We also encourage you to keep in contact with your child's teachers.

Please review the contents of our student handbook with your children at home. To ensure that you've reviewed our policies and support them, we ask that you please sign and return the student behavior contract. If you have any questions at all, please feel free to call me at 479-4414.

We are honored to be able to work with your children. We look forward to another exciting school year.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Slattery
Chief School Administrator
Bloomsbury School District

BLOOMSBURY SCHOOL DISTRICT MISSION STATEMENT

Every Bloomsbury student will develop academic and social skills necessary to become contributing members of school, community, and society. The Bloomsbury Board of Education in partnership with the community will provide educational programs that will enable our students to:

Achieve academic excellence through mastery of:

- | | |
|---|--------------------------|
| * foundation skills | * decision making skills |
| * creative and critical thinking skills | * problem solving skills |
| * goal setting skills | * work study skills |

Achieve social excellence through mastery of:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------------|
| * developing self-esteem | * communicating openly |
| * respecting differences | * interpersonal skills |
| * risk taking without fear of failure | |

PARENTAL GUIDELINES

We recognize our partnership with parents in the education and welfare of your children. Our school has always welcomed visits from parents and will continue to do so. In order to maintain a productive and secure building for your children, we would appreciate it very much if parents would:

1. be sure that your child's homework is completed and handed in on time;
2. contact school if your child will be absent:
 - call our attendance office at 479-4414, extension 7, in the event that your child is absent from school;
 - please send the student back to school with a note explaining the nature of the absence;
3. not allow your child/children to arrive at school before 8:15 a.m., since there is inadequate supervision before that time;
4. be sure that we have your correct address and telephone number;

5. keep in mind that only the nurse may dispense medication, provided that a physician's prescription is provided;
6. report to the main office immediately upon entering the building to obtain a visitor's pass;
7. not allow your child to bring valuables or toys unless requested by the teacher, and
8. if your child needs to leave prior to dismissal, sign your child out of school from the office prior to 3:00 p.m. Your child can not be released without your signature.

BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS

We, the staff of Bloomsbury Elementary School, recognize our responsibility to provide an atmosphere of order and discipline necessary for effective learning. To establish a positive learning environment, it is important that a set of rules and guidelines be provided to all teachers, parents, and students. The purpose is to instill responsible behavior into every student.

These guidelines are necessary for the safety and protection of all students as well as the efficient operation of the school. However, good discipline originates in the home. The parents are the first teachers and should develop in the child good behavior habits and proper attitudes toward school. To help the child, parents must:

1. teach the child respect for the law, authority, the rights of others, and for private and public property;
2. show an interest in school by attending school functions and by taking part in parent/teacher meetings (PTO), Board of Education meetings, Open House, fundraising projects, and other school-related activities;
3. stress the importance of being ready for school by keeping up with materials, books, student agendas, and everything else necessary for good schoolwork;
4. ensure that the students are acting safely on their way to and from school;
5. teach the child the importance of getting to school on time every day (8:30 a.m.);
6. explain the importance of traffic safety to the children and model appropriate behaviors by crossing at the corners;

7. teach the child to be tolerant of teachers and classmates whose culture may be different from theirs -- embrace each other's uniqueness;
8. trust teachers to treat your children with the same respect that we expect from them, and
9. ensure that their children are dressed in an appropriate manner for school adhering to the standards set by the Bloomsbury Board of Education.
 - a. Student dress (including, but not limited to, footwear) shall not create a potential health or safety hazard to the individual or other persons.
 - b. Student dress shall be clean enough so as to be non-offensive to others.
 - c. Student dress shall be within the bounds of good taste and standard practices. It should not be distracting or disrespectful to the individual or to others.
 - d. Clothing advocating or promoting alcohol, drugs, or tobacco, or are sexual (actual or implied) in nature are disruptive and not conducive to the school's environment.
 - e. General parameters for the enforcing the dress code include:
 - neat and clean clothing
 - length of shorts, dresses, and skirts shall reach the fingertips
 - lycra shorts or other form fitting materials are prohibited
 - bare midriff tops are prohibited

The administration will ultimately determine the appropriateness of student dress.

RULES FOR BECOMING A RESPONSIBLE STUDENT
AT BLOOMSBURY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

1. Students will speak, answer, and act respectfully at all times. Foul language is always unacceptable.
2. Students will not steal.
3. Students will show respect for school and personal property. Students who lose or damage books from the library or classroom are expected to pay the replacement value.

4. Students will behave appropriately on their way to and from school. Students may not ride bicycles to school.
5. Students will not fight.
6. Students will not forge notes or signatures.
7. Students will be cognizant of which day(s) they will have physical education and be appropriately prepared.
8. Students will not disrupt the school/classroom environment.
9. Students will walk quietly in the building and during emergency drills.
10. Students will use the bathroom only for its intended purpose.
11. Students will not chew gum.
12. Students will not bring cell phones (without written parental consent) or portable music players to school.
13. Students will not throw snowballs, either on school property or to and from school.
14. All rules for good lunchtime behavior must be followed.

Violations of the above rules could result in: parent/teacher conference, meeting with the principal, teacher detention, suspension in or out of school, or deprivation of some privilege or treat.

Also, in accordance with state law (Chapter 94 PL 1992), the Bloomsbury Board of Education has adopted a “Zero Tolerance Policy” [5131.7] with respect to bringing any item to school that could be dangerous. Items that you may consider being harmless may be classified as dangerous instruments if they are brought to school. These may include, but are not limited to: penknives, play guns, pointed objects, etc. The Board recommended actions include notifying authorities and student suspension even though the items may not be intended for deliberate harm. It is our intent to provide a safe environment for all of the students in our school. Dangerous instruments, even though brought to school for innocent reasons, could result in accidental injury. Kindly speak to your child to make sure that any such items remain at home.

IMPORTANT TO KNOW

Attendance -- It is mandatory under New Jersey law that pupils regularly attend school. Accordingly, there are rules and regulations regarding student absenteeism. For record keeping purposes, we consider there to be two classifications of students’ absences: Non-Cumulative and Cumulative.

Non-Cumulative absences are absences covered by a doctor's note, a religious holiday, death in the immediate family, or an administrative waiver. All other absences, including family vacations, will be considered Cumulative absences. Both types of absences must be documented with a signed excuse. In the case of a doctor's note, the doctor must sign it and include the following information:

- the student's name,
- the reason for the absence,
- the date(s) of the absence, and
- a parent's/doctor's signature and date.

When a student is absent from school, a parent must call the school before 9:00 a.m. to give the reason for the pupil's absence. In addition, it is advised that a student return to school with a note from a parent stating cause of absence. Absence excuses should be presented to the homeroom teacher on the first day that a student returns to school. Students who are not in attendance during the school day will not be allowed to participate in any after school or evening events for that day. Please note that a student in grades Kindergarten through eight who is in school for less than four hours will be considered absent.

Lunch Program -- All students in grades Kindergarten through eighth may purchase a Type A lunch daily or bring a bag lunch and beverage to be eaten in the cafeteria. Menus will be sent home monthly. Forms to order lunch tickets are available in the front office and from the Cafeteria Manager. Parents are encouraged to join their children for cafeteria lunch every Wednesday beginning in October. Parents coming to school can call the school office by 10:00 a.m. if they wish to purchase a lunch.

Emergency Closing of School -- The closing of school for inclement weather or other emergencies will be announced during the early morning hours using the following formats:

- * Television WFMZ (TV 69)
- * Internet www.wfmz.com
www.pennlive.com/lv
- * Radio 96.1 FM

In the event of a school closing during the course of the school day, the Emergency School Closing Procedure will be used. Under this procedure, radio announcements will be broadcast prior to dismissal, the block telephone chain will be activated, and parent contacts will be attempted as needed.

STUDENT BEHAVIOR CONTRACT

I care about and respect others and myself. I want to become the best that I can be. I want to be a responsible Bloomsbury School student. Therefore, I promise:

1. to do my classwork and homework; and
2. to follow classroom and school rules at all times.

All rules have been discussed with and explained to me by my classroom teacher. I will discuss them with my parents/guardian.

I understand that I am responsible for myself, and for what I do and say.

I accept the consequences for unacceptable behavior.
